Dear Sir/Madam,

I write further to the ongoing and unresolved handling of both my personal banking relationship and the account opening application for SunGod Jewelry Ltd.

Over the past two (2) months, I—and my representatives—have made numerous attempts to engage with your institution. This includes repeated phone calls, messages, and direct communication with your staff. Despite initial engagement, your representatives have progressively ceased responding, including failing to answer calls and messages altogether.

During this period, your institution has requested documents incrementally and repeatedly, all of which have been duly provided with supporting evidence. Notwithstanding our full cooperation and transparency, no decision, no progress, and no meaningful response has been communicated to date.

UNPROFESSIONAL AND INAPPROPRIATE CONDUCT

I must also formally raise a matter of serious concern regarding the conduct of your staff member, identified as Mr. Hashim.

It has been reported that Mr. Hashim made unsolicited and inappropriate references to my mother's bank account details during a discussion with my fiancée, stating that she was "well aware" of such account.

I formally question:

On what legal or professional basis was this information disclosed or referenced?
How is this relevant to the present application?

Such conduct raises serious concerns regarding confidentiality, data protection, and professional ethics, which are fundamental obligations of any licensed banking institution.

LEGAL POSITION

As a customer and Mauritian citizen, I am entitled to:

Fair, transparent, and timely treatment by a licensed bank;
Proper handling of my application in good faith;
Respect for confidentiality and data protection principles.

Your institution, operating under the supervision of the Bank of Mauritius, is bound by these obligations.

The current situation constitutes:

Unreasonable and unjustified delay;
Constructive refusal without formal notification;
Failure in communication and duty of care;
Potential breach of confidentiality and professional standards.
COMMERCIAL PREJUDICE

I am currently at a critical stage of my business operations.

The account opening for SunGod Jewelry Ltd is essential to enable access to logistics facilities with DHL Express, which directly impacts shipping costs and operational viability.

My order is scheduled to arrive on 10 April, and any further delay places my business at risk of significant financial loss and disruption to its official launch.

Should any prejudice arise as a direct or indirect result of your institution's conduct, MCB will be held fully liable for all resulting damages and consequences.

FORMAL DEMAND

You are hereby required, within 48 HOURS of receipt of this notice, to:

Provide a clear written decision regarding the account opening of SunGod Jewelry Ltd;

If refused, provide a detailed and justified explanation;

Address the issue of unprofessional conduct and potential breach of confidentiality;

NOTICE OF TERMINATION AND FUNDS RECOVERY

In the event that SunGod Jewelry Ltd does not meet your internal criteria, I hereby formally request:

The immediate closure of my personal account(s);

The full and immediate return of all funds held in my name.

It is a fundamental legal principle that funds held by a bank are repayable on demand, absent any lawful restriction.

I will attend your branch in person to collect my funds should this request not be actioned promptly.

NOTICE OF LEGAL ACTION

Failing satisfactory resolution within the stipulated timeframe, I will proceed without further notice to:

Lodge a formal complaint with the Bank of Mauritius;

Refer the matter to the Ombudsperson for Financial Services;

Initiate legal proceedings before the Supreme Court of Mauritius for recovery of funds, damages, and any prejudice suffered.

All rights are strictly reserved.

This situation reflects extremely poorly on the standards expected of a regulated banking institution. I trust that this matter will now be treated with the seriousness and urgency it requires.

Yours faithfully,

Sunny Sweenarain

Dear Ms. Auckloo,

Thank you for your response and acknowledgment of my complaint under reference number 181923.

However, I must stress that this matter has already been ongoing for over two (2) months, despite my full cooperation and repeated attempts to engage with your institution. While I note that the case has now been escalated, this situation has already exceeded reasonable timelines and continues to cause serious prejudice to my personal and business interests.

As such, I am issuing a FINAL NOTICE.

You are hereby required, within *24 HOURS from receipt of this email, to:

- * Provide a clear and definitive written decision regarding the account opening of SunGod Jewelry Ltd;
- * If refused, provide a formal written explanation stating the reasons for such refusal;
- * Confirm that the matter concerning unprofessional conduct and potential breach of confidentiality has been formally addressed.

FAILURE TO ACT – IMMEDIATE INSTRUCTIONS

Should no satisfactory resolution be provided within the above 24-hour deadline, I hereby instruct as follows:

- * You are to immediately transfer all funds held in my personal account to the following beneficiary:

Name: Gavishta Harkoo

Bank: SBM

(Full account details will be provided upon your confirmation of execution)

- * Alternatively, you must provide me with a formal written document clearly stating your refusal and the reasons thereof.

Please note that continued delay or inaction will be considered as:

- * A refusal to provide banking services without justification;
- * A failure to return client funds upon demand;
- * Ongoing misconduct and lack of duty of care expected from a regulated institution.

LEGAL POSITION

If this matter is not resolved immediately, I will proceed without further notice to escalate to the Bank of Mauritius and the Ombudsperson for Financial Services, and initiate legal proceedings before the Supreme Court of Mauritius for recovery of funds, damages, and any losses incurred.

This situation is unacceptable. As a Mauritian citizen and customer, I will not tolerate further degrading treatment or lack of transparency.

I trust that your institution will now act with the urgency and professionalism required.

Dear Mr. Sunny Sweenarain

Greetings from Business Banking.

We refer to your email dated 28 March 2026 with subject "MCB – FINAL NOTICE: Account Opening Delay, Unprofessional Conduct, and Recovery of Funds".

Please rest assured that we have given your concerns our full attention, and kindly find below our findings:

We have noted that request to open bank account for SunGod High Lifestyle Ltd operating under trade name Sungod Jewelry with MCB was submitted on 24.02.2026 through our online platform.

On 25.02.2026, request was reworked to applicant for below reason and was returned to Bank level on 26.02.2026:

- Kindly remove HARKOO GAVISHTA on as secretary on application as per company extract of files.

With reference to your email for "Respect of confidentiality and data protection principles", please find hereunder our finding:

- On 03.03.2026, our Business Assessor contacted you on mobile number 58254336 to request the Assay Office Registration Certificate and clarification regarding the startup cost of MUR 800,000.
- We were informed that you are unavailable and that mobile number pertains to Miss Gavishta Harkoo who acts also as shareholder for SunGod High Lifestyle Ltd.

During the call, we were advised that the startup cost was available on a family member's account, and the relevant account number was shared with our Business Assessor for verification purposes.

On the same day, an email was sent to sungodmru@gmail.com to request the outstanding information.

On 04.03.2026, we received an email from Miss Gavishta Harkoo, informing the Bank that the entity does not hold an Assay Registration Certificate, as it deals only in the sale of imported gold plated jewelry and will not be handling precious metals. The family member's account details were also provided in this correspondence.

Account Opening Delay

As regards, your concern about the delay in processing the account opening request:

We wish to point out that based on the nature of the business and the information obtained, the Bank is required to carry out a due diligence prior to the onboarding of any new client. Such exercise does take time.

However, we regret to inform you that, after careful consideration, the Bank has decided not to favourably entertain the request for the opening of an account in the name of SunGod High Lifestyle Ltd.

May we take the opportunity to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Bank.

Please feel free to contact us should you require any further clarification.

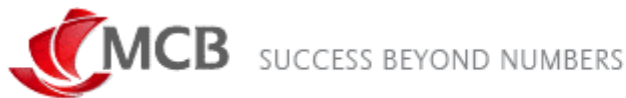

We remain at your disposal for any additional information you may require.

With our best regards,

Mrs. Laetitia Le Boeuf Brasse

Dear Mrs. Laetitia Le Boeuf Brasse,

I acknowledge receipt of your email.

Your response remains vague, incomplete and fails to answer the main questions that I have now asked repeatedly.

This is now the fourth time that I am requesting a proper written explanation regarding the excessive delay and refusal of the account opening application for SunGod High Lifestyle Ltd trading as Sungod Jewelry.

The application was submitted on 24 February 2026. The only amendment requested was the removal of the secretary name on the application, which was corrected immediately. Clarification regarding startup capital was also provided promptly.

Despite this, the Bank took more than one month to issue a refusal without providing any precise or valid reason.

Further, during this period, staff members repeatedly indicated by telephone that the procedure was progressing normally and that everything was going well. At no point was I informed that the application was likely to be refused.

I therefore formally require the Bank to answer the following questions in writing:

1. Why did the Bank take more than one month to communicate a refusal after the requested information had already been provided?
2. What specific compliance review, due diligence process, internal investigation or approval process caused such a delay?
3. What is the exact reason for refusing the application?
4. Is the refusal linked to:
 - * compliance concerns;
 - * anti-money laundering concerns;
 - * source of funds concerns;
 - * reputational risk concerns;
 - * the nature of the business activity;
 - * an ongoing court matter;
 - * any internal policy;
 - * my personal profile?
5. If the refusal is linked to an ongoing legal matter or court case without any conviction, kindly explain on what legal basis the Bank considers that sufficient to deny access to banking services.
6. On what exact date did the Bank internally decide to refuse the application?
7. Why was that decision not communicated immediately?
8. Why was I repeatedly told by telephone that the procedure was progressing normally if the Bank was already considering refusing the file?
9. At what exact stage did the Bank determine that the application would not be approved?

The Bank cannot simply take more than one month, delay a business launch, create financial prejudice, disrupt supplier commitments, logistics, stock planning and commercial operations, then issue a refusal without a clear written explanation.

A refusal without reasons may raise concerns regarding fairness, transparency, discrimination, arbitrary decision-making, reputational prejudice and possible breach of the Bank's duty to act reasonably and in good faith.

Further, I no longer wish to maintain any relationship with the Bank.

You are therefore instructed to proceed with the closure of my personal account immediately.

I will attend the branch tomorrow at 14:00 to withdraw my funds, as I have urgent transactions to carry out and cannot continue suffering further delays and prejudice.

Kindly ensure that the necessary arrangements are made so that there is no further delay when I attend.

Please also confirm in writing:

- * the exact remaining balance on my account;
- * whether there are any pending charges;
- * whether any restrictions have been placed on my account;
- * the exact procedure for closure;
- * whether an official closure letter will be issued;
- * the date on which the account will be formally closed.

Please treat this email as a formal demand for written clarification and closure instructions.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Sunny Sweenarain

Dear Mr. Sunny Sweenarain

We acknowledge your concern regarding the delay in the onboarding decision. As previously communicated, please note that the Bank is required to perform a thorough due diligence review prior to onboarding any new client. Such exercise does take time.

Kindly be advised that the establishment of any banking relationship remains at the sole discretion of the Bank. As such, the Bank is not obliged to provide detailed reasons for its commercial decisions and will not be commenting further on this matter.

Regarding the closure of your personal account, we have attempted to contact you by phone but were unable to reach you. Please confirm your preferred branch so that we may schedule an appointment. Once received, our colleagues will contact you to provide assistance.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank you for your reply.

I wish to inform you that I am currently physically present at the St Pierre branch in relation to the closure of my personal account.

At first, I was informed that my account could not be closed because I do not currently have the original physical ID card in my possession. However, I have repeatedly explained that my original identification documents are presently unavailable and that I have brought several supporting documents with me, namely:

- A copy of my ID card
- My digital ID
- A copy of my birth certificate
- Proof of address
- Any other supporting documents available to establish my identity

After presenting my digital ID, I was asked to wait, and I am still awaiting a final response.

I wish to highlight that I am not requesting the opening of a new account or any credit facility. I am simply requesting the closure of my own personal account and the release of my own funds. I believe that the documents provided are sufficient for the Bank to reasonably verify my identity and proceed accordingly.

I also wish to note that, under normal banking practice, a customer should not be prevented indefinitely from accessing or recovering their own money where reasonable proof of identity has been provided. Any continued refusal without a clear written explanation may cause unnecessary prejudice and financial harm.

Given the urgency of the matter, I kindly request that the branch proceed with the closure of my account and release of funds today, or alternatively provide me with a formal written explanation setting out precisely what additional document or legal requirement is preventing the process from being completed.

I trust the Bank will handle this matter reasonably and without further delay.

Kind regards,

Sunny Sweenarain

Dear Mr. Sunny Sweenarain,

Thank you for your email and for bringing this matter to our attention.

We wish to assure you that your request is taken seriously and as a bank, we are bound by strict regulatory and internal procedures governing both the opening and closure of accounts.

These procedures are applied consistently and with the same level of diligence, irrespective of the nature of the request.

In this context, we are required to insist on the presentation of original identification documents at the branch to proceed with the account closure.

While we acknowledge the supporting documents you have made available, including copies and digital records, our procedures require that original identity documents be physically presented to the Bank to enable us to complete the process.

These measures are in place to safeguard our customers and to ensure compliance with applicable regulatory requirements.

We thank you for your understanding.

Should you require any further clarification, our branch colleagues will be pleased to assist you with the original documents.
